

THE CALEDONIAN.

LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

JOHNSBURY, VT., FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 1867.
It is now easier to make the Caledonian valuable for our friends and our friends in Caledonia, because our country will confer a great favor to us and very greatly to the interest of the paper by giving a local home in a brief, lively form.

Island Pond.

Sunday the 21st inst., Johnny Hobson, age nine years, son of S. D. Hobson, was placed in leaping upon an empty mam-cabell between two cars, and was rescued till the remainder of the two hours passed over him. He fortunately escaped with his life, but one leg was severely mangled, the flesh being completely peeled from the bone along most length of the limb.... A few days since, one of the employees of the Grand Trunk railroad, Bowes, was detected in the act of stealing a chest of tea from a car. He took the first trial for Canada and has since been heard from.
